

GREEN MAN WINES

Wines by the Glass

White

Les Anges Sauvignon 2014, Loire, France €6.00 glass / €22 Bottle

Zesty with lively acidity, hints of passionfruit and gooseberry with great balance and a clean finish. A touch of richness without sweetness.

Salandi Pilastris "Falerio" 2013, Italy (organic) €6.50 glass / €24 Bottle

This characterful blend of Ugni Blanc, Pecorino and Passerina is delightfully lemon oil and fennel scented. Crisp, dry, intriguing and compelling.

Txomin Etxaniz, Txakoli 2014, Spain €7.50 glass / €28 Bottle

Beautifully refreshing Hondarrabi-Zuri (ya wha?) with a slight addition of CO². Fresh and tangy, with a slight chalky mineral and lemon flavour. Bright, low in alcohol and perfect on a summer day.

Birgit Eichinger Riesling Von Berg 2013, Austria €8.00 glass / €30 Bottle

Dry and light in body with crisp/refreshing acidity. Vibrant flavours of lime, pineapple, honey and mango. Youthful and full of fresh and zesty fruit character.

Rosé

Olho no Pé Rosé 2013, Douro Portugal €6.50 glass / €24 Bottle

This is a very elegant and crisp rosé. Made from Pinot Noir grapes this has aromas of raspberry, orange blossom and sour cherries. This pale pink wine is the perfect refreshing summer tipple.

Red

La Bastide aux Olivers 2013, Languedoc, France €6.50 glass / €24 Bottle

A blend of Carignan, Syrah, Grenache, Mouvedre and Cinsault from two neighbouring, but significantly different terroirs. Solid yet silky texture on the palate with attractive fine-grained tannins. Nice explosive finish with sweet raspberry flavours.

Quadrifolia by Vallado 2013, Douro, Portugal €7.00 glass / €26 Bottle

A young, fresh red packed full of fresh fruit flavours and red fruit aromas, including blueberry, cherry, raspberry and red currant.

Arnaldo Caprai, Montefalco Rosso 2010, Umbria, Italy €7.50 glass / €28 Bottle

Sangiovese with a touch of Sagrantino and Merlot from the Umbrian hilltop town of Montefalco and the winery Arnaldo Caprai which has always been one of the best. This vintage is no exception, full-bodied and tightly woven with notes of cherries and cassis, a fine perfume and gentle tannins.

Jimenez-Landi, Las Uvas de la Ira 2012, Mentrída, Spain €8.00 glass / €30 Bottle

Las Uvas de la Ira (The Grapes of Wrath) is a single varietal Garnacha made of fruit from three small plots of old vines (60+ years). A little "funky" with floral notes, including violets and dried herbs, which lend it an almost Pinot-esque elegance. Truly delicious.

Sweet

Chateau Mouras, Graves Supérieures 2007 Spain €3.50glass (8.75cl)/ €25 Bottle

A sweet wine made from botrytised Semillon and is a superb alternative to Sauternes. Sweet yet beautifully balanced, and makes a superb aperitif, a lighter accompaniment to foie gras and is a superb with fresh fruit and cheese.
