

GREEN MAN WINES

Bastille Day 2015 - Wines by the Glass

Sparkling

Meyer-Fonne Cremant d'Asace NV, Alsace €35 Bottle

A blend of Pinot Blanc, Pinot Meunier and Pinot Noir with a lovely crisp apple and creamy citrus nose. The palate is fresh and dry with ripe apple, lime and mineral character.

White

Picpoul de Pinet 2014, l'Estang de Sol, Languedoc €6 Glass / €24 Bottle

Similar in style to Muscadet but with a slight floral element. If you like fresh, steely Chablis, then you'll love this.

Chateau Turcaud Blanc Entre-Deux-Mers 2013, Bordeaux €6.50 Glass / €26 Bottle

A very classy wine with vividly fresh Sauvignon character. Lively orange, pineapple and floral on the nose followed by grapefruit and lime on the palate.

Chateau Pierre-Bise Anjou 2012, Loire Valley €7 Glass / €28 Bottle

Seductive and mature with ripe pineapple, vanilla and old oak. A rich wine with immense character, nutt aromas, spiced honey and ripe apples. The palate is freshened up with firm tannin and lemon and apple flavours.

Gerard Tremblay Chablis 2013, Burgundy €7.50 Glass / €30 Bottle

Very mineral, yet not aggressive with trademark green and red apple and oyster aromas. The palate is whistle-fresh with lime, apple and more minerals showing.

Rosé

Le Saint André 2014, VAR, France €6 Glass / €24 Bottle

We can't think of anything nicer to drink with friend in the dappled shade of a sundrenched terrace. Very attractive rosy salmon colour, with notes of apple and pineapple on the nose. Fresh tasting with a good finish of white fruit.

Red

Lapierre Raisins Gaulois 2014 €6.5 Glass / €26 Bottle

The ruby colour lovely, natural Gamay from celebrity Beaujolais winemaker Marcel Lapierre is full of raisins, cranberry and red currant fruit and lively acidity. Served slightly chilled.

Chateau Mayne-Vieil Fronsac 2010, Bordeaux €7.00 Glass / €28 Bottle

Full-on nose with animal, plum flavours and hints of tobacco. The palate is richly fruited with vanilla, plum cassis and cedar wood. Slightly firm but lush tannins contribute to a lengthy finish

Eric Texier Vaison la Romaine, 2012, Southern Rhone €7.50 Glass / €30 Bottle

A dark garnet wine, deep with dark fruit, yet still fresh. Aromatics are very lifted with dark plum, earth and sweet herbs. Expansive and dense in the mouth with good cleansing acidity and a long finish. Serious, yet so easy!

KO In Côt We Trust 2011 Puzelat-Bonhomme, Loire €8.00 Glass / €32 Bottle

There's an intriguing, wiffy, exotic nose and a palate that majors on earthy fruit and rasping tannin. There's a great depth and length too. About as far removed from a 'fruit bomb' as possible to be and all the better for that.
